

All application materials must be received by the application deadline to receive full consideration. For application deadlines and entry terms, refer to the priority deadlines. International applicants and those with international transcripts should consult the International Requirements Page, for deadlines and other requirements, as they may differ.

- Transcripts reflecting a doctoral degree in nursing or health-related field from a CCNE or NLNAC accredited nursing program and a regionally accredited college or university. You may upload the unofficial transcript(s) for your institution(s) within the Academic History tab of the application. You may also upload the transcript(s) following the submission of your application via your Status Page. Upon an offer of admission, you will be required to submit official copies of provisional documents within your first quarter of enrollment.
- Two recommendations addressing applicant's clinical and academic abilities.
- Professional résumé.

Written statement describing professional and personal goals and reasons for interest in postdoctoral certificate.

- Evidence of current RN Licensure in Washington State with no practice restrictions. You can print from Nursing Care Quality Assurance Commission on the Washington State Department of Health website.
- Should be currently practicing or provide evidence of recent Pathophysiology, Pharmacology, and Assessment courses.
- Selected applicants invited to interview with program director or other Admissions Committee member.
- Graduate and post baccalaureate applicants who received a baccalaureate degree or higher from Seattle University or a recognized college or university in the United States, Canada, Great Britain, Ireland, New Zealand, Australia, Bahamas, Jamaica, Kenya, Singapore, Belize, Nigeria, and Trinidad and Tobago will not be required to submit English proficiency test scores. Students earning a degree in a country other than those listed will be required to submit English proficiency test scores.

University prohibits retaliation against any individual who makes a good faith report or otherwise provides information about discrimination, harassment, or sexual misconduct.